

John Coxon

I am Ashby de la Zouch born and bred and educated at local schools and married to Jane we have two grown up children James and Rebecca we have our family electrical business in Brook Street which I run with my daughter Rebecca our family have traded in ashby since 1971.

I have a great deal of experience in being a councillor and getting things done and known for plain speaking serving as your county councillor which I have done for the past 12 years serving as the chairman of north west Leicestershire highways forum and district councillor for castle ward in Ashby being first elected in 1991 and have received a long service award from the district council currently serving as cabinet support member for business I am also a member of Ashby de la Zouch town council where I have the privilege of being leader of the council a position which I have held for a number of years.

I am always available to discuss matters of the town and parish I am easily contactable hold regular surgeries and in the town on a daily basis I am able to bring together and deal with issues that concern our town and parish.

I care deeply about Ashby and Blackfordby where I have always lived.
